Having read the first two books in this series I could not wait to find out how it all ends and let me tell you I was not disappointed My every expectation for this story was met Merged worlds bring all sorts of surprises from the creepiest creatures to heroic hearts and I lapped it up Then there are the battles Massive in scale the give it all and die for a cause type battles filled with death horror and terror From snow to fire from air to underwater I found myself holding my breath sometimes There s also quirky humour and fellowship and love There s hope amid despair there s beauty amid the chaos Most of all this is an epic tale bringing mythology and fantasy into our time and place in an imaginative and highly enjoyable way My only gripe is that Elora and Bray s tale will go on now without us looking in on them via the pages Who knows maybe the Empire will have need of their skills in the future Well done to the author Excellent indeed 501
