This fantastic split page spiral bound book allows the reader to mix and match different combinations of fairy tales with hilarious results. Fairy tale pop up books What would happen if Goldilocks had two horrid stepsisters and fell asleep for a hundred years? Would she be woken by a hungry wolf or Little Red Riding Hood's Granny? Mixed Up Fairy Tales This was a cute book but best for kids who are already very familiar with classic fairy tales. Mixed Up Fairy talesystem 32 This book is very clever it has a dozen fairytales in one book all jumbled up! Children would love this book because it allows them to have fun whilst reading and this book kept me occupied for ages! It is interactive and you get to choose the story and it can get very funny as it not the traditional story that they have heard previously and the random sentences get you laughing for hours! This book is colour coded so if chosen to you are able to read the story in its original form. Muddled up fairy tales 32 It is a very simple concept - part of a sentence to introduce the classic fairy-tale character and then other parts of the sentence are built to show what the character did:
